

Key Knowledge

- The Bible is like a library – a collection of books. The New Testament is the part that
- discusses Jesus' life.
- The word Gospel means "good news".
- The Gospels are the first four books of the New Testament in the Bible.
- They are attributed to four of the Disciples (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John).
- Christians believe that the Gospels are the true accounts of Jesus' life. Important events are in all 4 although the viewpoint may change.
